FELL FORTY FEET.

Seventeen Bricklayers Thrown to the Ground by the Breaking of a Scaffold.

ELIZABETHPORT, N. J., June 26.—Two men were killed and several injured so badly that they will probably die by the fall of a scaffolding this morning at the Worthington pump works, where a new building is in course of erection. Seventeen bricklayers, with their helpers, were at work on the scaffold when it gave way and they were precipitated a distance of forty feet to the ground. The killed are Michael Nolan and Gabrielle Williams. The injured are: Patrick Moler, badly injured; Kemus Humbel, colored, head crushed; James Kelly, badly bruised and cut; Michael McCarthy, slightly injured; Patrick Jones, slightly injured. A number of others received slight abrasions or bruises. The accident is attributed to the overloading of the scaffold.

MUST HAVE AID

If the Seal Killing is Limited to Seven Thousand Five Hundred.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 26.—Advices from the North American Commercial company's agent on the Seal Islands are that up to June 10 the cutter Rush had not reached the islands and consequently the killing of seals had not begun, as the agents felt bound to await the arrival of the government inspector. The agent writes that if the catch be limited to 7,500 seals the seal meat will not supply the natives for more than a few months, and they must be supported by the company, he therefore sends a requisition for a large amount of supplies, food, clothing and fuel. President Liebes, of the Commercial company, says: "We shall give the natives good support, whether the government reimburses us or not. We have chartered the steamer Lakome to carry 1,000 tons of food to the islands and more will be sent if needed. None of the coal ships have reached Onalaska and there is serious need of fuel there."

ROW AT A FANDANGO.

Two Men Killed and Several Wounded.

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, June 26.—Yesterday morning, at a fandango at Encinal, N. M., the crowd became riotous and a constable named Reynolds attempted to quiet them. He was bluffed off and went for assistance. He returned with three deputies. When near the house they were fired on by the dancers. Deputy Cope was killed and Deputy Robert Carr was shot through the leg. The fire was returned by the wounded officers. Blaziera, of the fandango crowd, was instantly killed and a white carpenter, named Rubold, was mortally wounded. Two negroes were arrested charged with the shooting.

SERIOUS CHARGES.

Consul Leonard Accused of Violating the Emigration Law.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 26.—Collector of the Port, Phelps, has preferred charges of a serious nature against United States Consul Leonard, stationed at Shanghia, China, and officials at Washington will investigate. Leonard is charged with indorsing fraudulent Chinese certificates allowing Chinese to land at American ports.

WILL SHUT DOWN.

A Dull Market and no Money Closes a Large Woolen Mill.

EAST DEDHAM, Mass., June 26.—The Norfolk woolen mill here will shut down Saturday evening for an indefinite period and it is reported that the Merchants' woolen mill, which is owned by the same company, will also shut down. The cause assigned is that there is a dull market and no money in the business.

An Ill-Fated Excursion Train.

VANBUREN, Ark., June 26.—A special excursion train from Little Rock to Fort Smith was wrecked by a broken rail three miles east of here at 6:30 last night, killing a little babe of Mrs. Walke, of Little Rock, and wounding about twenty passengers. Conductor Henry Angel had his jaw broken, and Elsie Willard, of Little Rock, had a leg badly mangled.

Dr. Northrop Dead.

NEW YORK, June 26.—Dr. John L. Northrop, the instructor in zoology at Columbia college, who was so badly injured yesterday afternoon by the explosion of a cask of alcohol in the basement of the college building, died at 4 o'clock this morning at the Presbyterian hospital.

The Appropriation Unconstitutional.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 26.—J. A. Barham, attorney for State Comptroller Colgan, has advised him not to pay the $300,000 appropriated by the legislature for California's exhibit at the World's fair, on the grounds that the appropriation is unconstitutional.

Coming to the United States.

CITY OF MEXICO, June 26.—General Sturm started yesterday for the United States. President Diaz asked for all the documents in connection with the General Sturm claim and will make a personal investigation.

Sir John MacDonald Leaves a Will.

OTTAWA, Ont., June 26.—The will of the late Sir John MacDonald leaves an estate worth about $90,000, exclusive of Earnest Cliff hall, to be divided equally between Lady MacDonald and Hugh John MacDonald, his son. After her death it goes to the son's family. His law library is bequeated to Hugh John MacDonald.

THE HEAVENS OPEN

And Deluge Omaha, Causing Much Damage to Property.

OMAHA, Neb., June 26.—The very heavens seemed to have opened and a perfect deluge of waters has been falling since 8 o'clock this morning. The newly graded streets are washed out, sewers have bursted and pavements washed out and thousands of dollars have been lost by the cloud burst. Not a train has arrived in the city since morning, and none on the Union Pacific and Elkhorn since yesterday. Telegraph wires have gone down and the lightning played havoc with the electric lines. Owing to the bad condition of the wires but little can be heard from the interior of the state.

JAY EWING RESIGNS.

His Anti-British Views Compel Him to Take the Step.

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 26.—Jay Ewing, the American consul here, has sent in his resignation and recommends as his successor Henry Harris, of Washington state, temporarily a resident of Vancouver. Ewings pronounced anti-British views and his failure to conduct himself in the manner generally expected of a gentleman and a diplomatic made him so unpopular that he was completely boycotted by both business men and society people. The feeling culminated yesterday in the circulation of a petetion addressed to Secretary Blaine and asking for the credit of the United States that Ewing be recalled. In less than two hours this petetion was signed by over three thousand residents, including the most prominent men here in all walks of life. Ewing gained the ill-will of the public here by refusing to respond to the toast "Queen Victoria and President Harrison," because the president was not mentioned first. The other day on an excursion on the Canadain Pacific railroad he caused the union jack, which hung beside the stars and stripes, to be pulled down. Since then the feeling against him has been very strong.

CONTRACT LABOR.

The Dobsons on Trial for Violating the Law.

PHILADELPHIA, June 26.—The special agent appointed by Secretary Foster to inquire into the recent strike at the John and James Dobson mills, has made his report. He does not recommend what sort of action shall be taken, but from the testimony presented it looks as if the matter will be taken into the court. John and James Dobson are charged by their former employes with importing contract labor. This is not denied by the Dobsons, as they claim it was necessary, as the work could not be done by the weavers in this country. On the other side the weavers contend that they could do the work.

"CANNOT AGREE

And Have Decided to Live Apart," Say Two Stage People.

NEW YORK, June 26.—Miss Pauline Markham, who was some years ago a bright particular star of the burlesque stage, has separated from her husband, Randolph Murray, and for five months the couple have been maintaining separate establishments. It was rumored yesterday that Miss Markham had sued her husband for divorce on statutory grounds. This is denied by Miss Markham and Murray. "We have simply decided to live apart," said Miss Markham yesterday, "as we cannot agree together."

IN ASHES.

The Largest Plate Glass Works in the World Destroyed.

ELMWOOD, Ind., June 26.—The Diamond Plate Glass works, the largest plate glass factory in the world, burned early this morning. The fire originated in the furnace room, and the flames were communicated to the casting room with great rapidity. No estimate can be placed on the loss, but it will reach into the thousands.

Ryan and Sullivan Will Fight.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 26.—Early this morning John L. Sullivan met Paddy Ryan in the latter's saloon. Ryan asked Sullivan to meet him again in the ring.

Sullivan consented and the men agreed to a six-round fight when Sullivan returns from Australia. It is said that Ryan will be backed for $10,000.

The Sons of Veterans, in session at Lafayette, elected John W. Newton, of Winchester, colonel; William Beach, of Indianapolis, lieutenant colonel; Frank S. Martin, of Lebanon, major; Horace G. Ogden, of Danville, delegate at-large, and Thomas W. Burt, of Lafayette, O. E. Ensley, of Indianapolis, and George P. Newman, of Hammond, delegates to national encampment. The next meeting of the state encampment will be held in this city.

DELLA TESTIFIES.

She Tells How Kuhns Accidentally Shot Himself—He Was a Horse Thief.

TIFFIN, Ohio, June 26.—[Special.] The sensational feature in the Kuhns trial today was the testimony of Della Bird, Kuhns' sweetheart. The court was packed to suffocation. Pretty and saucy Della gave her evidence in a bold manner and the attorneys were unable to puzzle her. Her story of her mistress life with Kuhns was an interesting one. But little, however, was adduced from it to prove that Kuhns was guilty of the murder of Campau.

At the time of the murder she was with Kuhns' father at Green Center, in Noble county, Ind. Kuhns met her there the day after the murder and took her back to Prospect, Ohio, where she said Kuhns accidentally shot himself in the hip. She said Kuhns was a horse thief; that they lived together as man and wife, but were never married, and that Kuhns had threatened to kill her if she ever told anything bad about him.

HARVARD WINS.

The Great Rowing Contest Results in Another Victory for the Reds.

NEW LONDON, June 26.—The great Yale-Harvard university boat race has been rowed, and for the sixteenth time in the history of the annual event Harvard has won, leaving Yale with a record of eleven out of twenty-seven contests which have taken place between the two great rival institutions of learning and sport. The day was one of the finest that could be imagined for the race. Crowds began to line the water front at an early hour, and the streets of the town were soon deserted. Enormous prices were demanded and paid for admission to observation cars and boats, or to any place well situated for a view of the race. The course was the usual one of four miles, from Winthrop Point to Gales Ferry.

Harvard took the lead at the start and held it by a fine burst of speed, which at once aroused wild applause among the tens of thousands of spectators. The excitement was then real, and in the confusion the steamers which were following the racers steered wild, and the tug Gypsy fouled the press boat Munnatawaka, upsetting the people, on board, but doing no more serious damage. The Munnatawaka also had hard luck near the finish, being obliged to run into the tug America to avoid a collision with the Rhode Island. No one was hurt, but several passengers were thrown off their feet and all were frightened. Harvard steadily increased their lead, and the excitement and enthusiasm grew correspondingly. All that was doubtful after the first mile was how many lengths the reds would be able to put between themselves and Yale before the finish. It was a one-sided contest from the start, much to the astonishment of most judges of rowing, their opinion having been almost universal that Yale would win, or at the least that the race would be close. At the finish the din was deafening, the throats of thousands of sightseers on the seventy five boats and thirty-five railroad cars, emitting yells of joy or disappointment, and scores of whistles belching forth a noisy applause. There was some delay in announcing the official time, which was twenty-one minutes and twenty-three secounds for Harvard, and twenty-one minutes and fifty-seven seconds for Yale. Harvard was about eleven lengths ahead at the finish.

HIS LICENSE REVOKED.

Snapper Garrison Bets on the Races, Which is Contrary to Rule.

NEW YORK, June 26.—The license of Jockey "Snapper" Garrison was revoked by the board of control yesterday. No reason was given for this action, but Secretary Vosburgh said it was on "general principles." The board has been investigating Garrison for the past three days at his own request. He has been criticised by all the newspapers for his riding of Judge Morrow last week and asked for an investigation with the above result. The report of the board means that Garrison will be prevented from riding at either of the four large racing associations in this vicinity. The board also issued a notice that the license of jockeys who bet upon the races will be revoked and that any person making a bet with or in behalf of a jockey will be ruled off the course.

AN INDIAN OUTBREAK.

Seven Hundred Bucks in War Paint, Armed With Winchesters.

FLAGSTAFF, A. T., June 26.—For some time past an outbreak of Moqui Indians has been daily expected, and Tuesday a courier arrived at Holbrook, from the Moqui reservation, with the news that the Indian agent and another white man had been murdered, and 750 bucks in war paint were encamped in Keam's canon, armed with Winchesters and ready to fight. The troops at Fort Wingate were immediately ordered to proceed to the scene and at the present time are now on the march over the trail. They have with them a Hotchkiss and several smaller guns.

PERPLEXED NO LONGER.

General Ruckle Settles the Military Encampment Matter.

The uncertainty that has clung to the reports about the state military encampment has been cleared. Adjutant General Ruckle and Quartermaster General Pope arrived from Indianapolis this morning for the purpose of coming to a final issue, and they proceeded at once upon their plans by viewing the land of the Fort Wayne Driving club, near the institute for feeble minded, which had been submitted by the members of the club as a site for the encampment. The grounds were found to excel in more ways than one any of the sites heretofore viewed, and the same was at once chosen. General Ruckle and Quartermaster General Pope were accompanied to the grounds by Mayor Zollinger, Majors Siver and Tillo. Tomorrow advertisements will be inserted in all of the city daily papers asking for proposals to furnish sustenance for the encampment in the way of bread, meats etc., all of which will be furnished by Fort Wayne dealers. The distinguished visitors left for home this afternoon.

A STORE BURGLARIZED.

August Ehle's Broadway Cigar Store Ransacked Last Night.

Burglaries have been committed three consecutive nights in this city, the last one taking place some time last night at the store of A. N. Ehle, 178 Broadway. Mr. Ehle carries quite a stock of pipes, cigar holders, tobacco and cigars, and has a cigar shop at the rear. Burglars crawled through a transom opening and helped themselves to a lot of imitation meerschaum pipes, briar pipes, cigar holders and several boxes of cigars. The thieves made their departure without being discovered and there is no clew by which the theft can be traced.

An Original but Costly Trick.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., June 26.—Several days ago Gustavus Milner and Samuel Russell, of Darlington, met two boys driving along the road. They stopped the lads, made them get out of the buggy, unhitched the horse, and, taking off the harness, carried it away, leaving the boys several miles from home. Warrants were sworn out against Milner and Russell, who were arrested and fined $20 and costs each.

Rearrested for Forgery.

ROCHESTER, June 26.—Lawrence M. Noyer, formerly editor of the Akron Eagle and postmaster of Akron, who was arrested last November on a charge of forgery and subsequently released on bail, was rearrested this morning and imprisoned here. He is supposed to be guilty of executing forged notes at that time not discovered.

Gen. Joseph W. Vance Resigns.

SPRINGFIELD, June 26.—Governor Fifer, commander-in-chief of the Illinois National guard, today accepted the resignation of Joseph W. Vance, adjutant general, and appointed to succeed him Brigadier General Jasper N. Reece, of Springfield, commander of the second brigade.

Major H. B. Smith, of Indianapolis, will inspect the Rifles Monday evening. This will be the general inspection.

Weight of Ice on Trees.

A gentleman of Brookline has sent to the Boston Transcript Listener an account of a very interesting experiment in taking the weight of the ice upon tree branches during an ice-storm when the ice on the trees was at its maximum. This gentleman thus describes the result of his experiment: "A branch of the syringa which weighed one pound had five pounds of ice on it, and a branch of pine needles weighing one pound had twelve pounds of ice on it. I got these weights by taking the wood with the ice on it at first, and then taking weight of wood after the ice had melted. This does not represent correctly the enormous strain or actual pressure exerted on the branches of trees by these ice-storms, but will easily account for the sad breakage of trees so common for the past few days, and the dangers from these ice-storms on both trees and wires.

Our System of Notation.

Some system of notation has been used since time out of memory. The first records we have of it is of figures written with a stick on a flat surface covered with sand. Before that all calculations were made with pebbles, beans and the like. Even now the Chinese do their counting with little stones or beads strung on wires in a frame. The Romans first used vertical lines—I., II., III., etc.—to express numbers. The Arabic figures, which we commonly use at the present time, are of much earlier date. The Arabic system is chiefly valuable on account of the great convenience it affords by giving a figure a value, according to the place it occupies in the line. By this system the most enormous sums can be expressed by the ten little characters which form the numerical alphabet.

Truthful Explanation.

It is the deliberate judgment of Miss Mary F. Seymour, who employs numbers of women, that there is work enough in the world for all the persons who know how to do it well, and that in some measure the scarcity of work that is so much talked of is most felt by those who can not do what they pretend they can or wish they could.

CLOSING SCENES!

Knights of St. John Convention at an End—Officers Elected and Final Business Transacted.

When the delegates to the thirteenth annual convention of the Knights of St. John assembled in Library hall this morning, they expected that the business before the meeting would be finished within an hour. In this they were mistaken. The discussion of the proposed change in the insurance plan took up nearly two hours. As the law now stands a member of the widows' and orphans' fund may, at his option, take out one, two or three policies of $500 each. This has given cause for serious dissensions and a change was recommended. Mr. J. C. Getreu, of Dayton, Ohio, proposed the following amendment to the consitution, which, after a long discussion, was on motion of L. C. Chapoton, of Detroit, adopted unanimously:

"Add to section 4:

"Resolved, That no second certificate shall hereafter be issued to a member until the membership of the widows' and orphans' fund be sufficient to pay $1,000 upon a single assessment call, and, provided, that no third certificate shall be issued to a member, until a single assessment call reach the sum of $1,500. This amendment shall not affect or nullify any second or third certificates now issued to members."

The election of officers, begun yesterday, was then taken up. The first ballot for first vice supreme president resulted as follows:

| | |
|---|---|
| G. J. Rosenfeld, of Columbus, Ohio, | 103 |
| D. J. McKelvey, Pittsburg | 23 |
| W. W. Cheezum, Indianapolis | 57 |
| Scattering | 11 |

The election of Mr. Rosenfeld was made unanimous.

W. W. Cheezum, of Indianapolis, was elected second vice supreme president on the second ballot. John G. Noll, of Fort Wayne, who was his competitor, withdrew his name after the second ballot.

Col. Speckert, of Louisville, renominated Timothy Nolan, the present incumbent, for supreme secretary Mr. A. A. Reinhardt moved that the election be made by acclamation. The motion was carried. The salary of the supreme secretary was, by unanimous vote, raised from $500 to $600 per annum.

George Mathison, of Wheeling, W. Va., was elected supreme treasurer by acclamation.

Joseph A. Skelley, of McKeesport, Pa., and Joseph Hesslinger, of Rochester, N. Y., were elected supreme trustees.

When the election of grand commander was reached, General Kreidler, in a neat speech, declined a re-election. Col. W. T. McGurrin, of Grand Rapids, Mich., was then elected grand commander.

For first vice grand commander Capt. J. W. Drury, of Detroit, received the unanimous vote of the convention; likewise Major J. A. Bronner, of Cincinnati, for second vice grand commander.

The supreme board of trustees was empowered to name the place for holding the next convention in case Toronto should decline the honor, and also was given power to elect a supreme spiritual adviser.

The convention passed the following resolution:

Resolved, That the thanks of this convention be and are hereby tendered to the press of Fort Wayne for their elaborate report of the proceedings of this convention.

The supreme officers elected were then installed by Supreme President Danchey, after which the convention adjourned to meet in Toronto, June 21, 1892.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON'S SESSION.

In the afternoon session yesterday Toronto was selected as the place to hold the next convention. The new local constitution was accepted from the committee and ordered printed in English and German. Final action on the adoption of the same was deferred until the next convention. A ritual for the initiation of new members and for conferring the degree of "Knight" was adopted. It was also decided to have a regulation costume uniform for all commanderies belonging to the Union. The tactics will be revised and will hereafter follow closely the West Point order of drill.

The election of officers, so far as held yesterday, resulted in the choice of Frank P. Bradley, of Cincinnati, as supreme president, viz, Daniel Danchey, who declined a reelection.

THE BANQUET.

Ninety in the shade is not a very propitious temperature for full dress parties, snowy starched shirt fronts and high collars, but in spite of this there was a large and fashionable gathering at the Randall hotel, last night, to take part in the banquet given in honor of the delegates to the convention of the Knights of St. John. The guests were seated around four long tables, which were laden with the delicacies furnished by Caterer Townsend.

Mr. J. B. Monning, of this city, officiated as toastmaster.

General Kreidler, of Dayton, before commencing his speech said that on occasions of this kind it was always customary to open the proceedings with prayer. The general then called upon Father Lang, who responded with a short prayer. General Kreidler in his remarks paid a grand tribute to the Fort Wayne battalion, commanded by Col. J. H. Rohan, and also to the citizens for the handsome way in which they had received the Knights of St. John.

Mr. Frank P. Bradley, of Cincinnati, the new supreme president, after repeated calls, mounted the rostrum. He predicted that the Knights of St. John would gain at least 5,000 new members before the next annual convention. He also urged harmony and discipline and then there could be no doubt of their glorious success.

Hon. P. S. O'Rourke was then called upon. In a five-minutes speech he recited the grand results that have already been achieved by the Knights of St. John; he also urged them to be steadfast in their devotion to their organization and before long their membership would be doubled.

Mr. Timothy Nolan, of Cleveland, supreme secretary, was the next speaker. He said that nowhere have they been so royally entertained as at Fort Wayne, for which the officers and members extended their heartfelt thanks to the citizens. Mr. Nolan, then addressing his remarks to the Knights, explained briefly the benefits derived from membership, and extolled the harmony and sociability that existed in the ranks.

Colonel Dunn, of Cleveland, sang a song entitled, "Take Me By the Hand," which was well received.

Mr. W. W. Cheezum, sr., of Indianapolis, was the next to respond. He said that they had to struggle hard at first at Indianapolis to organize a commandery of the Knights of St. John. They now had sixty-five members in their commandery and before they would meet again in annual convention, Indianapolis would be able to have a full battalion in the line of march. Mr. Cheezum is a fine speaker and is a great favorite with the delegates.

Mr. J. Davis, the colored orator and delegate from Washington, D. C., was the next speaker. He said that the hospitality they have received from the citizens of Fort Wayne would long be remembered by the present delegates.

Mr. Joseph A. Skelley, of McKeesport, Pa., is a finished orator. He went into many details of the organization, showing the hard work necessary to bring the commanderies of St. John to what they are today. Mr. Skelley was frequently applauded.

Father Weber, of Indianapolis, spoke briefly on the good selection the Indianapolis commandery made when they selected Mr. Cheezum as their delegate.

M. McBride, of Grand Rapids, Dr. Corcoran, of Detroit, and many others were called upon, and all responded in happy speeches.

NOTES.

A. A. Reinhardt was lobbying among the delegates early and late in favor of Tim Nolan for supreme secretary.

Supreme Secretary Tim Nolan and sister, and Miss Fannie Stallknecht, of Rochester, N. Y., are guests of A. A. Reinhardt, of East Washington street.

Many of the delegates left the city on the noon trains, but a goodly number will stay over till tomorrow. All are warm in their praise of Fort Wayne hospitality.

Ed Hayes, of commandery No. 12, Cleveland, Ohio, is an energetic worker for the widow and orphans' insurance department. He represents one of the oldest and largest commanderies in the union.

An impromptu meeting was held before the regular session opened this morning. Mr. P. S. O'Rourke was elected chairman and Mr. Cheezum, of Indianapolis, secretary. Col. Dunn was called upon and favored the sir knights with an inspiring military song. Mr. Cheezum, in response to a general invitation, arose and attempted to sing, but his voice broke down after the first stanza. He went out to have it repaired.

The enterprise of THE SENTINEL in giving to the public the full proceedings of the Catholic convention was highly commented upon by the officers and delegates of that body as well as by the public in general. Supreme Secretary Nolan said last night that THE SENTINEL had a better and more complete account of the proceedings than any paper published in any of the cities where these conventions have been held for the past ten years. As a matter of fact, hundreds of copies were sent out of the city by the delegates to friends at home.

COURTS CLOSING.

The Business in the Courts Grows Lighter—James Harrington Charged With Theft.

James Harrington, who seems to have had no occupation for some time past, was today arrested by Sheriff Viberg on the charge of stealing tools belonging to George Hale, of East Columbia street. It is claimed that Harrington has been carrying off tools from time to time. Suspicion fell upon him and he was watched. The prisoner was arraigned before Justice France, who bound him over in the sum of $300, in default of which he went to jail.

POLICE COURT.

August Richard, a laborer, was arrested by Officer McCrory for assault and battery on Henry Westrumb. Clarence Edsall entered a plea of guilty for the defendant, who turned the tables by filing an affidavit against Westrumb, charging provoke. The case was continued till tomorrow morning.

William Cohn, a young man, was arrested by Officer Patton for soliciting orders for books without a license. From the young man's story it appears that he had been canvassing orders in the city about three weeks, and was unfamiliar with the ordinance governing the license question placing soliciting orders on a plane with "peddlers." The defendant's ignorance of the law did not excuse him for the mayor assessed a light fine, which the young man paid, and took out a license.

MISCELLANEOUS BUSINESS.

R. L. Romy today filed an affidavit in Justice Wilkinson's court today against an unknown party for maintaining a nuisance on certain premises north of Lakeside, in Washington township.

The hearing of Charles Allen, the colored man charged with perjury in having testified falsely as a witness in the Gronendyke case, was held in the court of Justice Wilkinson, and the defendant was bound over to await the action of the circuit court. Failing to secure a bond of $500 he went to jail.

Hiram Porter had John Snyder capiased for $25 and secured that judgment before Esquire Wilkinson. Snyder's runaway team smashed Porter's buggy. E. V. Emerick is attorney for the plaintiff.

Margaret Heersche vs. Herman Heersche, divorce proceedings. Defendant enjoined from calling on the plaintiff or otherwise annoying her.

Judge Dawson has adjourned the superior court till July 8.

The circuit court will adjourn till September, tomorrow.

The county commissioners will let bridge contracts tomorrow. They are examining bids today.

In the superior court the arguments for a new trial in the suit of Elizabeth Monroe vs. W. J. Kerr and R. S. Robertson were overruled, and the case was taken to the supreme court. The suit is on a note, for which a judgment of $271.28 had been rendered.

Supreme court decision: 96. Pennsylvania company vs. Henry F. Clark et al. Allen C. C. Rehearing denied. —A railroad company is bound to transport property within a reasonable time, but it cannot be said as a matter of law that this means that the shipment must be made on the first train leaving after the property has been delivered for transportation.

AN ESTEEMED LADY DEAD.

The Widow of Rev. Wynekin Passes to the Other World.

News has reached here of the death of Mrs. Wynekin, at Oakland, Cal., last Tuesday. The deceased was the widow of the late Rev. Wynekin, who was pastor of the St. Paul's Lutheran church in this city for many years, having been the second pastor chosen by the congregation. Her age was sixty-seven years. The remains will be shipped to Cleveland, Ohio, and laid to their last rest beside the remains of her husband. The funeral will take place next Tuesday.

OTHER DEATHS.

Yesterday morning at 9 o'clock occurred the death of Harvey, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Evy, aged seven years, two months and twenty-seven days. Death was caused from inflammation of the bowels. The funeral was held this afternoon at 1 o'clock from the residence and from the Parker church at 2 o'clock, Rev. Gaff conducting the services.

THIS DAY IN THE PAST.

TO-NIGHT.

G. A. R. HALL—Sion S. Bass Post.
LOB HALL—Kekionga Council of the National Union.

SUNDAY was the longest day of the year. The sun rose at 4:31 and set at 7:26. Summer commenced on that day.

REPUBLICAN newspapers are gracious and even profuse in their eulogies of the late Joseph E. McDonald. It is well that democrats die occasionally; otherwise the truth about them would not be told.

THE railroad directors, who were indicted for the tunnel disaster, last winter, on the New York and New Haven road, have been acquitted. They were all millionaires. The poor victims who were roasted to death were poor.

HON. WM. H. ENGLISH, of Indianapolis, in talking of the death of ex Senator McDonald, said he was shocked to realize how rapidly the public men of an earlier day are passing away. He had been a congressman in 1851, and of all the Indiana representatives up to that time, only four besides himself are living, namely—Richard W. Thompson, George W. Julian, Graham N. Fitch and A. J. Harlan. The only senators living are Fitch, Ben Harrison, Voorhees and Turpie.

HON. JOHN A. MAGEE, ex-member of congress from Pennsylvania, and one of the best posted men on commerce in this country, explains how protective tariff is working in this country: "European governments seem to be indifferent to and take little or no interest in the Chicago exposition. They are asking whether it is worth while to expose their products in a country whose high protective tariff excludes foreign productions and with which it is impossible to maintain profitable trade relations. England, with its low tariff, continues to control the markets of the world and its commerce still whitens every sea. A Chinese tariff wall has shut in our productions and shut out the products of other countries, thus destroying American commerce. And all for what? That a comparatively few American manufacturers may pile up their millions at the expense of American consumers."

PRESIDENT DARNELL, of the Muncie nail works, takes little stock in the statement made by Professor Jordon that the natural gas supply is diminishing. Mr. Darnell is considered an expert, and claims that the gas is now as it has always been, being constantly generated in the interior of the earth, and that its permanency is strictly dependent on the manner it is handled and taken care of. He thinks the state should enact laws to regulate the drilling of wells, so that the precious fluid will not be wasted or the field ruined by thoughtless, reckless and unscientific drilling of wells. He has such faith in the permanency of gas that he is thinking of organizing a company to insure against the failure of gas wells ad valorem, and at no higher premium rate than ordinary fire insurance, provided the wells insured are drilled and handled according to stipulated rules and regulations.

THE KUHNS TRIAL.

A verdict in the Kuhns murder trial will probably not be reached until the latter part of next week. The state has already examined some twenty five witnesses and has probably forty more to place upon the stand before it closes. The defense will have about fifty witnesses in all and their examination, with those who will be called by the state for rebuttal testimony, will not close the evidence before Saturday night, and may run it over into next week. The arguments of the attorneys will probably occupy two days and at best a verdict could not be reached before next Wednesday. It is the general belief that the trial will last nearly all of next week. While the state is making a strong case of circumstantial evidence against Marvin Kuhns, it is the general opinion of lawyers not interested in the case, and others who have followed the states' testimony, that it will not be able to convict Kuhns of the murder of Wm. Campau.

The prosecutor has shown, by his witnesses, that Kuhns and Campau were partners in the horse trading business at Prospect, Ohio; that some two weeks before the murder was committed the two quarrelled on several occasions over money matters; that they left Delaware together on the Sunday the murder was committed, were seen on the train and were also seen to get off together at Fostoria, Ohio, in the evening. An hour later that two shots were heard and the next morning the dead body of Wm. Campau was found. It has also been proven that when the two men left Delaware, Campau had a roll of money in his possession and when his body was found this was gone.

This, in brief, is the chain of evidence which the state has already brought out, but the cross examination weakens it.

Kuhns' attorney, Senator Perry M. Adams and N. L. Brewer, two of the oldest lawyers in Tiffin, are taking advantage of every point to get their client free. Kuhns is cool and says but little to anyone while in the court room, but believes that the jury will not convict him.

FAMILY REUNION.

Pleasant Celebration of Mrs. Freeman's Seventy-Sixth Birthday.

One of the most pleasant social events of the season was the family reunion and celebration of the seventy-sixth birthday of Mrs. Mary L. Freeman, at her home, at Potier Station, Allen county, Ind. The family of eleven children were all present with the exception of two sons, one John Snyder having died a soldier in the war of the rebellion, and the other, Jonathan Snyder, of Topeka, Kansas. Her children present were: Mrs. Catharine Blubaugh, of Plymouth, Marshal county, Ind.; Mrs. Emma Kniss, of Huntertown, Allen county, Ind.; Wm. Snyder, of St. John, DeKalb county, Ind.; Henry Snyder, of W. Unity, Williams county, Ohio; Mrs. Etta Freeman, of Warsaw, Kosciusko county, Ind.; Edward Snyder, of Antwerp, Paulding county, Ohio; Mrs. Sophia Kniss, of La Otto, Noble county, Ind.; Miss Jennie Freeman, of Peoria, Peoria county, Ill., and Wm. Freeman, of Ari, Allen county, Ind.

Mrs. Freeman had been married twice—in 1836 to John Snyder, and he died in 1852. In 1856 she was married to Frame C. Freeman and this husband died in 1871. She has thirty six grandchildren living and ten dead, and she has ten great grandchildren, a number of whom were present, besides three stepchildren—one Mrs. Ellen Myers, Chillicothe, Ill, and the other two living near her home. Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Snyder, of Williams county, Ohio, and Mrs. Lester and daughters, were relatives from a distance. Several friends were present, also, the guests and relatives numbering fifty-seven in all. A number of nice presents were bestowed as tokens of respect from her children and friends. A bountiful dinner was enjoyed by all present and beautiful boquets graced the tables. After dinner her sons procured the services of a photographer from Churubusco, Ind., to take a large picture of Mrs. Freeman and her children in a group, after which the guests departed wishing her many happy returns of the day.

From Sylvan Lake.

ROME CITY, June 25.

On Monday five pike were caught in the West lake by Geo. Moore. Weight from eight to sixteen pounds.

T. E. Riblet, the popular salesman with Root & Co., of Fort Wayne, was among his customers on Monday.

Last Saturday a young man from Fort Wayne was seen stealing a banana from a bunch which was hanging in front of the Bon Ton restaurant. The prisoner was taken before Justice Cobbs, who bound him over to the next term of the circuit court. H. Berghoff, of Fort Wayne, acted as his bondsman. The business men of this place have put their heads together and propose to prosecute to the full extent of the law all the petty theives who make a practice of taking any and every little thing which comes in their sight, no matter if a few gin venders do side in with the thieving element.

S. E. Hayden, of Fort Wayne, is putting up two new houses near the Assembly hotel.

Chas. Olds and family, of Fort Wayne, occupy the Denny cottage.

In almost every neighborhood there is some one or more persons whose lives have been saved by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy, or who have been cured of chronic diarrhœa by it. Such persons take special pleasure in recommending the remedy to others. The praise that follows the introduction and use makes it very popular. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by druggists.

QUACK! QUACKETY! QUACK.

Ducky's Ducklings From Heckerville Prove to be Food for Hoosiers.

Oh, my, but it was hot when the game began yesterday afternoon, but the temperature rose about fifty degrees more before the ninth inning was terminated, and all on account of the mouth work of Trost, Hemp and Wright, whose jaws certainly would prove valuable in the secrets of perpetual motion. "Ducky" would not take warning, but "quacked" at everything so loud and so long that his persistency cost him a fiver.

At 3:15 p. m., a tall, slim built, good looking gentleman, with a blonde mustache, entered the arena and began inspecting the surroundings. His striped cap betokened authority, and when he inquired for the gang it became apparent that Cline had departed and in his place came a new umpire. This was Hoagland, and while his decisions were at times rather slow, yet they were satisfactory to all.

The game was a beauty, and while victory was handed the locals by a small majority, yet the score should have been a blank for the visitors. Their only run can be easily told. Hemp got to first on a hit, and went to third by a wild throw of Briggs' to second, and then home on another wild throw to third. After this they settled down to work, and only two of the visitors passed Heckerville, viz: Payne reached Hollandshire in the seventh and Terrien visited Brutonham in the eighth.

It was a battle of "southpaws," and while on their recent visit Payne could not be found by the locals, Inks was pounded hard. Yesterday this was reversed, and Burt smiled a good old-fashioned grin as gosling after gosling beat the air until it resembled scrambled eggs, and then they would drop their beaters and growl. Eight of them he killed off in this manner, while only three hits were made. The locals secured their two earned runs in the first, as follows: Souders got first on a hit; was advanced to second by Holland's hit; stole third, while Holland did the same of second, and both came home on Hecker's single. This was all they secured, the score being a long list of circles to the end for both sides.

The crowd that greeted the players was a very large one, many of the visiting knights being present. It was a very happy crowd, and their applause was about equally divided, while every one that needed it was roasted to their full capacity. In order to make himself heard above the din an intoxicated individual proceeded out to the coacher's line to give Guy a few pointers. Hecker induced the drunk to go to the east bleechers for a rest, but while there the fellow concluded he would like Guy's shirt, and had our gallant captain not been one of the best natured fellows in the world some person would be seen this evening with a broken back. Officer Dassler appeared and the chap, brimful of circus lemonade, was turned outside the grounds, where he furnished amusement for the ball scramblers.

Two more games at home and then the club will be absent for two weeks. Captain Hecker says the boys will play ball at home as they have never played before, and expect to capture nine out of ten games on the home grounds and pick up what he can abroad.

Following shows the results of yesterday's games:

AS FROM THE DEAD

Comes the Voice of the Long Missing Scott Case.

One of the first settlers in Wells county was Almon Case, a "down east" yankee. He came long before the county seat was located and settled on a tract of land south of Bluffton, which to this day is known as the "Case homestead." When Bluffton was chosen as the county seat Mr. Case opened a hotel near the Wabash river. Here he lived and prospered for a number of years, rearing a numerous family. One of Mr. Case's boys, Scott, was a wayward lad and caused his parents much anxiety. One day the old gentleman attempted to chastise Scott, when the boy drew a pistol and shot his father. At first the wound was supposed to be fatal and Scott, badly frightened, left the country. This was thirty-five years ago. Mr. Case speedily recovered from the effects of the shooting and lived many years, a prosperous and highly respected citizen. Nothing was heard of Scott, and his parents, who died several years ago, gave him up as dead.

Last week the following letter was received by Postmaster Swain of Bluffton:

NEW ORLEANS, LA., June 14, 1891.
Postmaster, Bluffton, Ind:

Sir:—I wish you would let me know if there are any of Almon Case's family living about Bluffton. If so, where at?

Did my father leave any estate and what became of it? I have not heard from there in twenty years.

If any of my brothers are there ask them to write to me. Hoping you will answer this as soon as you can, I remain yours, SCOTT CASE.

P. S.—When I last heard from there my father had a good deal of property.

Almon Case was well known in early days. He was a frequent visitor to Fort Wayne, making the trip often in a farm wagon, drawn by oxen. He was the father of Mrs. Doctor Horton, of Bluffton, and Mrs. Snyder Filson, both of whom are dead. The latter lived in this city for a short time about twenty years ago, and many of our citizens will remember her.

If you do not receive your SENTINEL regularly, please notify us immediately, either in person or by postal card, that we may remedy the fault.

WHY?
Why will people attempt things for which they are entirely unsuited?
Why do women worry, cry and fret when they should be pleasant and happy most of their time?
Why are men blue, despondent, melancholy, stolid, so often, when they should be strong, hopeful, enterprising and vigorous?
Why should any man endanger his health, possibly his life, when a little care will prevent it?
Why is the present season of the year so depressing, enervating, the very air filled with malaria and malarial influences?
Why will people permit the dangers, sickness and troubles of this season to affect their health and undermine their life when they can easily be counteracted by the use of pure whiskey and water?
Why will people persist in taking impure, adulterated, injurious whiskey, when so pure a whiskey can be secured as Duffy's Malt?
Why will unscrupulous druggists seek to palm off inferior and injurious whiskeys? Because they can make much more money out of the cheap and impure than they can from the sale of the genuine and valuable.

RETRENCHMENT.

Mackey Uses His Axe Freely and Wholesale Discharges Result--Local and Personal.

D. J. Mackey, president of the line of roads in Kentucky, Indiana and Illinois known as the "Mackey system," has inaugurated a war of reform and retrenchment that means something. With the exception of the main line, running from Evansville to Chicago, it has been a heroic effort upon the part of Mr. Mackey to make any of the various lines pay the fixed charges and operating expenses. The latest move was the wholesale removal yesterday, at Louisville, of nearly every officer of his Louisville, Evansville and St. Louis line, extending from Louisville to St. Louis. General Manager George E. Evans, General Freight Agent Lawrence S. Parsons and General Passenger Agent Joseph S. Diorne were asked to tender their resignations to take effect July 1. It is said there is to be a general clearing out of the employes of the entire road. The more important agents at Louisville and St. Louis will be replaced with new men. The impression prevails that it is Mr. Mackey's intention to extend the jurisdiction of the officers of the Evansville and Terre Haute and Chicago and Eastern Illinois roads over the Louisville and St. Louis line, thus weaving it all into one system and under one general management. There is also a rumor that the heads of some of the departments on the Chicago and Evansville line will also fall into the basket. General Manager G. Washington Saul, it is feared, is in danger of removal, while others are impressed with the belief that he is to be one of all others to be retained.

THE SHOPMEN'S EXCURSION.

Over 2,400 people will go to Warsaw tomorrow on the shopmen's excursion. This morning the foremen of the different departments held a meeting in T. J. Rodabaugh's office and completed arrangements for the day's outing. A platform has been erected in the grove at Eagle Lake, and to the music of Casso's orchestra those so inclined will dance the merry hours away. Two floor managers have been appointed to look after this part of the program. The challenge of the Warsaw base ball club has been accepted, and the game will take place on the grounds at Warsaw at 2 o'clock. The Fort Wayne team is made up of the best material in the shops and will undoubtedly everlastingly beat the Warsaw boys. It is composed as follows: Coy, 3b; Cherry, 2b; Judy, s.s.; Daily, 1b; Gaffney, p; James, c; Stahl, l.f.; Walsh, c.f.; Benedict, r.f. Fifteen cents admission will be charged, which will go to the contesting clubs.

The excursion train will be composed of three sections, and the time of departure is as follows: First, 6:30; second, 7; third, 7:40. Returning, the first and second sections will leave Eagle Lake at 6:50 and the third section at 8:40. The committee of transportation is composed of G. H. Judy, S. C. Henderson and O. E. Bradway. Every thing has been arranged for one of the most enjoyable excursions ever given to Fort Wayne people. A fund of about $60 was raised this morning to pay the musicians and furnish lemonade and candy for the children.

RAILROAD AND PERSONAL NOTES.

Over 200 Baptists went to Rome City this morning.

Pittsburg engines 533 and 218 are in the shops for repairs.

Charles Gloss, of the Bass works, has a new boy baby at his house.

The Lake Shore has just completed a new side track at Kendallville.

Chris Schell, a car repairer at the Wabash shops, is on the sick list.

F. Larack, an employe in the Pittsburg round house, is on the sick list.

Engineers S. S. Kolker and C. Colmey, of the Pittsburg road, are in Chicago.

E. S. Lenfesty, caller at the Pittsburg, attended the Rifles excursion yesterday.

Engineer B. F. Campbell, of the Pittsburg, is off attending to private business.

J. R. Medaker and Chris Libel, of the Pittsburg car shops, are absent today on account of sickness.

The National association of general baggage agents will hold its annual meeting at Boston July 15.

Passenger Engineer B. Plock, of the Pittsburg, reported for duty this morning after a few days lay off.

W. Fisher, caller at the Pittsburg round house, is taking a vacation, and F. A. Tagtmeyer is taking his place.

William Korde, of the Bass shops, is attending the reception of his sister today. The lady was married yesterday.

W. Koehl, who was laying off attending the St. John convention, returned to his work in the Bass shops this morning.

The Saturday half-holiday is being observed generally in Pennsylvania, and it is proving very profitable to the railroads. Numerous excursions follow in its trail, and the roads are finding it difficult to furnish sufficient accommodations.

A new class O engine, No. 217, was placed on the western division of the Pittsburg road today.

Fireman L. Gribbin, of the Grand Rapids, reported for duty this morning, after an absence of two weeks.

After a three months' lay off Engineer C. G. Hassler, of the Grand Rapids road, resumed his run this morning.

Conrad Pliet was overcome with heat yesterday and was compelled to quit work. He is employed in the yards at the Bass works.

In August and September the Indianapolis division of the Pennsylvania lines will receive fifteen class "R" freight engines.

John Slater, the Pittsburg blacksmith, lost a valuable colt last night. It was of the Frank Forest stock and had every indication of making a flyer.

W. L. Heller, an employe at the Peters' box factory, had the thumb of his right hand so badly injured yesterday that the member had to be amputated.

Samuel McAfee took a ride last evening behind J. D. White's flying steed. Mr. McAfee, not accustomed to such speed, was obliged to strap himself to the seat.

Angola Herald: "The Wabash extension through the south part of the county is a 'sure go.' The company is now paying for the right-of-way contracted for last fall."

The Lake Erie and Western earned in the third week of June $54,405.00; increase over 1890, $2,304 47, which more than overcomes the decrease in earnings of the first week of this month.

It is rumored that the Lake Shore railroad has received a liberal offer from Toledo to move the Elkhart shops to that city. The offer is said to be the necessary buildings and a large sum of money.

The official corps of E. A. Ford, general passenger agent of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburg, as now organized, consists of five assistant general passenger agents and fifteen traveling passenger agents.

The members of the Order of Railway Conductors and the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers on the Chicago and Erie road are arranging for an excursion to Put-in-Bay on July 19. Their families will accompany them.

John Sanders, of the Pittsburg shops, is in the painting department. John tells the boys that he is going to spend Sunday with his parents near New Haven, but as he makes these utterances his face is so wreathed in smiles that nothing less than pergradus surfour could be used to smooth off the surfaces of his countenance. It is feared that John has a sweetheart.

An express messenger on train No. 7, due here from the west shortly after 5 o'clock in the evening, had an experience the other evening that he will long remember. Somewhere this side of Warsaw the car took fire and it was only after a hard struggle that he extinguished the blaze. He was so exhausted when the train reached this city that he had to be carried from the car.

It was a happy heart that beat within the folds of the blue coat which encased the manly form of Conductor Charles Lonergan as he shouted "all aboard" on his homeward trip out of Muncie today. A few days ago the Lonergan family consisted of Charlie, his estimable wife and a bright boy and girl. The family circle only wanted one thing to make it complete and that was another girl. Yesterday was Charlie's thirtieth birthday. Dame fortune had her benevolent eyes upon him and when he went home for dinner he found awaiting him the longed for daughter. Miss Lonergan is a beauty and we wish her and the proud parents a long and happy life.

The supreme council of the Federated Railway Employes failed to come to a decision at the meeting in Terre Haute yesterday regarding the trouble between the switchmen and trainmen, growing out of the Northwestern strike. The report of the investigating committee was not complete and the council adjourned to meet again tomorrow, when, it is hoped, the matter will be settled.

The Muncie Times contains the following concerning a gentleman well known in this city: "Last night John P. Ramsey, roadmaster of the Lake Erie and Western, Fort Wayne branch, with headquarters in this city, tendered his resignation to the management to take effect July 1st, after which date he will act in the capacity of engineer of maintenance of the way of the C., H. V. & T. Ry., with headquarters at Columbus, Ohio. Mr. Ramsey is a very popular young railroad man whose services are valuable to any road securing them. He leaves many good friends in this city who with the Times will regret his departure from Muncie, but congratulates him on his promotion.

The Fort Wayne delegates to the Christian Endeavor convention at Bluffton this week were: Etta Souder, Lillie Vordermark, Mary Biddle, Carrie Biddle, Mary Brokaw, Katie Vordermark, Mary J. Smith, Annie G. Habecker, Genie Smith, Lulu Ward, Rosa Mudge, Charles J. Fry, Nellie Buck, Nellie Morgan, Elliott G. Schulze, Grace M. Waldo, Edith Brenton, Etta Brooks, Rev. James Ainslie, Mrs. R. A. C. Danick, Miss C. B. Sharp, Mrs. D. Bloeels, Miss Max Nixey and Jacob Goodspeed.

Father Duehmig, of the Catholic church at Avilla, is the possessor of a copy of a German edition of the Bible, which was printed in March, 1483 seven months previous to the birth of Martin Luther. The work can be found in the museum at Notre Dame university, where it has been for several years past. Speaking of this, Father Duehmig says that there were thirty-two editions printed in the German dialect previous to that by Martin Luther.

After all, the best way to know the real merit of Hood's Sarsaparilla, is to try it yourself. Be sure to get Hood's.

Iron Workers on a Strike.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., June 25.—Several hundred men at the Pioneer iron furnaces struck yesterday because the owners of the plant refused to pay them according to the Pittsburg scale.

A suggestion: If you are troubled with rheumatism or a lame back allow us to suggest that you try the following simple remedy: Take a piece of flannel the size of the two hands, saturate it with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bind it on over the seat of pain. It will produce a pleasant warmth and relieve you of all pain. Many severe cases have been cured in this way. The Pain Balm can be obtained from druggists.

The Scotch stick. The Bank of Scotland issued £1 notes as early as 1704, and their issue has since been continued without interruption.

"WHO ARE YOU WRITING TO, DEAR?"

"I am answering Mrs. Pinkham's letter, that reached us at Cairo. She has told me just what to do, and I am feeling much better; besides, she has given me a list of places where her preparations are sold. I found them here in Alexandria, and have laid in a stock. My mind is easy now, so any time you wish to start, I'm ready!"

[illegible] Sculptor's Work.

When the young sculptor, John B. Leoni, during a fit of temporary insanity, was held in waiting at the Burlington (N. J.) jail pending the results of inquiries as to his identity, he obtained possession of a common bar of washing soap and proceeded to astonish the jailers. With the nail of his index finger he began to dexterously carve the soap into the shape of the "human form divine," and within an incredible short time, considering the magnitude of the undertaking and the unbalanced condition of his mind, had produced a wonderful model of an Alpine hunter. The figure, which is now carefully treasured, is said to be equal to anything ever executed by either Marcou or Vidouquet. It represents a man with his right arm outstretched, the fingers of the hand encircling the neck of a duck, which is as carefully reproduced and as true to nature as the figure of the hunter. The left hand hangs by the hunter's side, holding a shotgun, while at his feet lies the figure of a dog, wistfully gazing at the game his master holds aloft. Taken all in all it is a most remarkable work of art.

About the only women in the world who swing their arms when walking are Americans.

Corn Germ Feed Meal

This feed is made from the germ of the choicest corn.

It is the sweet milky part of the corn, and is better adapted for feeding horses, hogs and cattle than any other feed. It is made from corn thoroughly steam dried and is very sweet and nutritious. It has not the heavy heating qualities of ordinary corn meal, which is so injurious to horses in hot weather, and being the milky part of the kernel, it is particularly desirable as a milk producer. For feeding purposes it is far superior to anything else in the market and it is cheap.

Tropical Heat.

This is nothing compared to the hot days of the tropics, and the inhabitants don't seem to notice the heat of that clime as much as we do here. Why not? Because they take things cool and in the hottest part of the day they lay in their hammocks in the shade, and now in the season when you need one the worst the Sportsman's Emporium, 53 East Main street, are selling at a sacrifice to close them out. Call early and get yourself a hammock and be happy.

IN SWEET CONCORD.

Twentieth Annual Commencement of the Conservatory.

The twentieth annual commencement of the Conservatory of Music took place at the Masonic Temple last evening. The exercises delighted the refined ear, the program being a carefully selected one, and rendered in a manner to reflect credit upon the teachers and pupils alike.

Misses Sturgis, Harding, Shoaff and Hoffman rendered the opening overture, "Die Italienerin in Algier," by Rossini.

"Water Lillies" was the part song, consisting of songs of the seasons, rendered by the ladies' chorus. The chorus sang with smoothness and harmony.

Miss Nina Sturgis played the "Grande Polonaise" on the piano, a pretty selection, but her vocal solo, a later number on the program, was the crowning number of the evening. "Ah, so True," as sung by her, had in it a sympathetic sweetness that was inspiring. The young lady received an encore. In this number M. N. Pinmadore played a violin obligato.

Miss Flora Hoffman's piano solo, "Marche de Nuit," was well received. Her musical accompaniment to the class song was also a feature.

A violin solo "Norma," by Miss Lillian Schrader was a particularly pleasing number. She was accompanied on the piano by her sister, Miss Carrie Schrader.

Miss Luella Harding's solo, "Valse Brilliant," was executed with an accuracy and grace that showed marked ability.

The piano solo, "La Polka de la Reine," by Miss Anna Shoaff, reached popular favor and the young performer had to respond to an encore before the audience would be pacified.

The several numbers of the ladies' chorus lent a fullness to the program, the numbers being rendered in a perfect and highly pleasing manner.

Diplomas were conferred upon the following graduates: Nina Leora Sturgis, of Bluffton, piano, vocal and harmony; Luella Athel Harding, of Butler, piano and harmony; Flora Lydia Hoffman, of Auburn, piano and harmony; Anna May Shoaff, of Sydney, Ohio, piano and harmony; Lillian May Garrigus, of Greentown, Ind., harmony.

The stage was prettily decorated and the costumes were charming.

Professor Charles F. G. Meyer's rapidly growing school of music is a credit not only to Fort Wayne but to all northern Indiana, for from its doors have emerged many graduates whose proficiency has since led them into channels of musical fame and prosperity.

The Rifles' excursion to Rome City yesterday was a big success. The excursionists numbered 250 and everybody had a good time.

E. F. Yarnell and family have gone to Warsaw to occupy their cottage.

THE WORLD'S FAIR.

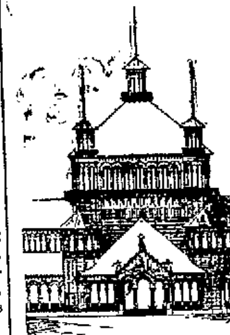
Every Nation Is Now Interested in the Great Chicago Exposition.

The buildings for the exposition are now taking definite shape. Work is rapidly progressing at Jackson park, and three months hence the buildings will be under the hands of the workmen. The vast quantity of building material required will be transported on roads built for that purpose. It is gratifying to note that, in spite of all difficulties and delays, as the buildings are being actually begun, the whole country, and, in fact, the entire world, shows the deepest interest in the proceedings. The work of promotion goes steadily on, and in a few weeks the bureau of promotion and publicity will have established a means of distributing its information to all the nations invited to participate.



ENTRANCE TO THE FISHERIES BUILDING.

Scientific Warfare.

It appears that the great electric search lights of modern men of war may have an offensive as well as a defensive value. There was a sham attack upon Cherbourg the other day by a squadron of the French navy, and during the maneuvers the torpedo boat Edmund Fontaine was run into by a cruiser and sent to the bottom, although she floated long enough to permit the rescue of her crew. Her officers report that they were so dazzled by the search light of one cruiser that they were utterly unable to see the ship that struck them, and so could make no effort to get out of her way. How the cruiser came to run over a friendly torpedo boat which was in the full glare of the electric light is not explained, but the accident gives an eloquent warning of what an enemy might do in similar circumstances.

Hairy and Hairless People.

The Lamattes are the nearest hairless and the Ainos the hairiest of all human beings. The last named have for centuries been famed as having more hair and less brains than any other species of the genus homo on the face of the earth.

A Bottomless Spring.

The great seltzer spring at Saratoga, N. Y., has been sounded to a depth of 8,300 feet without touching bottom or encountering any obstacle. This strengthens the belief that this great northern summer resort is built over a subterranean sea.
